TdF Alps-Paris 2017

EQUIPE CMITours

Hotels:

We have carefully selected two hotels for your trip. We like to keep the number of hotels down to a minimum so that you aren't constantly packing up and feeling unsettled.

Hotel le Pic Blanc, Alpe d'Huez

Our first hotel is a 4* hotel situated in the town at the top of the world famous Alpe d'Huez. This hotel offers comfortable quality rooms, with an indoor pool and spa area. There is also a good restaurant on sight as well as plenty of other restaurants and bars nearby in the town of Alpe d'Huez

Hotel Bourgogne et Montana, Paris

Our second hotel is also a 4* hotel right in the center of Paris, situated just over the river from the Champs Elysees and the Louvre museum. This location is ideal for easy access to the Tour de France finish as well as the main tourist attractions of the city.

Monday 17 July 2017

The Alps 50km

For your first day in the Alps we will start our ride by climbing above Alpe d'Huez to the Col de Sarenne. Following the descent we will return via a little know road called the "Balcons", which offers some of the most stunning views of the Alpe d'Huez valley and bring you back out part-way up Alpe d'Huez.

Hotel: Pic Blanc Alpe d'Huez
Dinner: You are free to discover the local restaurants

Tuesday 18 July 2017

Col du Galibier, Col du Telegraphe, Col de la Croix de Fer. 140km / 4300m

Get ready for a big ride. Today we will get dropped off at the top of the Col du Lautaret, from where we will start our ride by climbing the Col du Galibier. After descending the other side of the Galibier we will take on the long but beautiful Col de Croix de Fer before finishing off with the almighty Alpe d'Huez back to our accommodation in time for a drink.

Hotel: Pic Blanc Alpe d'Huez
Dinner: Included

Wednesday 19 July 2017

Tour de France viewing

The stage of today's race in the Alps is near to our accommodation. We will ride to a point on the course see the race live. Depending on race timing and you fitness, we may even be able to see the race twice and get to climb the Col du Lautaret in the process.

Hotel: Pic Blanc Alpe d'Huez
Dinner: You are free to discover the local restaurants

Thursday 20 July 2017

Briancon - Izoard

The stage start and finish are real close to each-other. We will drive over the mountain to spend the day focused on viewing today's mountain stage.

Hotel: Pic Blanc Alpe d'Huez
Dinner: You are free to discover the local restaurants

Friday 21 July 2017

Embrun Stage Start

Today's TdF stage starts relatively nearby in the town of Embrun. We will drive to see the start of the stage. After waving the riders off for the day, we just might have to sneak in a ride up the Col d'Izoard.

Hotel: Pic Blanc Alpe d'Huez
Dinner: Included

Transfer to Paris

Today is the final Time Trial of the 2017 TdF. We will transfer to Paris in preparation for tomorrow's big arrival. We will transfer to Lyon airport late morning for our flight to Paris. You will arrive in Paris and transfer to the Hotel in the city center in time for dinner in the world's most famous city. We will transfer the bulk of your luggage and your bikes (should you bring your own) to Paris separately so you can travel light.

Dinner: You are free to discover the local restaurants

Sunday 23 July 2017

Paris Finale

We are ideally located right over the river of the finish of the Tour de France. We can have a relaxed morning, maybe wonder the streets of Paris and have a coffee at a street-side café.

The streets will be teaming with TdF spectators setting up early in preparation for the arrival of the biggest bicycle race in the world. We can find a vantage spot from which to see the race, or we will try and organize some form of VIP access should you want that additional option.
